TERRORIZING SCHEME

Nipped in the Bud on Train Saturday Night.

CAR LOADS OF NEGROES.

Capt. Sol Fritz There With Some One to Assist Him.

Five cars filled with negroes came over the L. & N. road Saturday night. Many of them got off at different stations along the road. Sol Fritz, who apprehended trouble, had telephoned policeman Tilford to go to Guthrie and return with him to quell any disturbance that might come up, and well he did. Jesse Bailey and another negro had planned between them to "take the train" after it pulled out of Guthrie. After running some distance Bailey began firing his pistol as a prelude to the music that was to follow. The other negro was on a seat with his pistol in hand to play his part. Neither of them dreamed that officers were near. As soon as Bailey began shooting the officers rushed on him and placed him under arrest and carried him to Elktion, where he was tried Monday and fined $25 for his little fun. He was unable to pay it and was put in jail. The officers were not able to make out a case against the other negro and he was released, as his weapon was not concealed.

Colored Institute.

The colored teachers' institute began its sessions in the circuit court room Monday and will close tomorrow. The attendance has been very good and the teachers are manifesting great interest.

Prof. C. C. Monroe, of Owensboro, is conducting the meetings and is a splendid man for the work. Prof. J. W. Bell, principal of the colored public schools, and others, have taken active parts in the sessions.

Tuesday night the house was crowded to hear Prof. Bell's lecture. His subject was, "Preparation and Service." His hearers were delighted and received many useful suggestions. Tonight the graduating exercises of the city public schools will take place. There are 21 graduates. Superintendent W. E. Gray has given every effort toward making the sessions a source of usefulness to the teachers of the county.

At School.

The doors of the different city school buildings were opened to the children Monday. The total enrollment was 759. As predicted in our last issue there was a marked increase over the enrollment of last year. The enrollment yesterday had increased the total between 40 and 50 over the preceding year. Children and teachers are now getting down to regular work and everything points to a most prosperous year.

Good Time.

The Daughters of Rebecca and the members of Green River Lodge, I. O. O. F., had a delightful time last night. A splendid musicale was given in the lodge room in the third story. Miss Jacobs and Mrs. Kline, of Evansville, and Mrs. Pinkerton and Miss Virginia Williamson filled numbers on the program most acceptably. Mr. Kincannon also did much to entertain the crowd. Refreshments were served in the banquet room, second story. A small fee was charged and a neat sum realized.

Alice Started It.

Mrs. Nick Longworth touched the gold button that opened the Cincinnati Fall Festival Tuesday.

State Doctors.

The State Medical Society will meet in Owensboro Oct. 10.

TWO SPEECHES BY GEN. HAYS.

Band Meets Him Here and Makes Tour of Streets.

HEARD BY 400 PEOPLE.

Gubernatorial Candidate Makes Another Speech at Pembroke at Night.

Gen. N. B. Hays, Democratic candidate for Governor, filled his appointment here Tuesday, coming in from Bowling Green at 9:45 a. m. He was met at the train by a committee of his supporters, who escorted him to the hotel, preceded by a brass band. In the several carriages were the following gentlemen: Dr. J. D. Clardy, E. M. Flack, J. E. McPherson, G. V. Green, S. A. Edmunds, John Bullard, W. A. Wilgus, J. E. Moseley, W. H. Jesup, J. V. Forbes, J. S. Bryan, J. W. Riley, Howard Brame, Dr. W. E. Reynolds, J. W. P. Pool and Buckner Leavell. The carriages traversed some of the principal streets before going to the hotel, but the crowd in town was small and the effort to create enthusiasm was unsuccessful.

At one o'clock Gen. Hays was introduced by Dr. Clardy, and delivered a speech along the lines of that heretofore published in the city papers. It was largely an attack upon the present administration.

The court room was well filled, a number of ladies being present. Gen. Hays is a good speaker and a good many in the audience were evidently in sympathy with what he said. At times his remarks were applauded. The effect of the speech, however, was disappointing to his supporters. A strong effort was made to make the occasion a big rally, but the crowd was only a fair sized one and many who attended were not for Gen. Hays. It is evident, however, that he will have a good following in this county. The small crowd is to be attributed to the lack of interest at this early stage of the campaign, and not to any unwillingness to hear the distinguished gentleman speak.

Gen. Hays left on the 5:18 train for Pembroke, where he spoke at night. Several Hopkinsville citizens accompanied him to Pembroke. Arrangements having been made to have the fast train stop at 10 o'clock so they could return at that hour.

Gen. Hays returned to this city yesterday morning and at 11:20 went to Cerulean Springs to fill an appointment at 1 o'clock.

JOHN HENRY

ON BRIDGE WHIST.

By HUGH McHUGH
(GEORGE V. HOBART)

"In One of Those Department Store Mobs."

I received a letter the other day that put me over the ropes.

"I'll taste it up here just to show you that it's on the level."

"Philadelphia, This Week."

"Dear John: I have never met you personally, but I've heard my brother, Teddy, speak of you so often that you really seem to be one of the family (Teddy talks slang something fierce)."

"Dear John, will you please pardon the liberty I take in grabbing a two-cent stamp and jumping so unceremoniously at one who is, after all, a perfect stranger?"

"Dear John, if you look around you can see on every hand that the glad season of the year is here, and if you listen attentively you may hear the hoarse cry of the summer grunter beckoning us to that bourn from which no traveler returns without getting his pocketbook dislocated."

"Dear John, could you please tell me how to play bridge whist, so that when I go to the seashore I will be armed for defeating expenses."

"Dear John, I am sure that if I could play bridge whist loud enough to win four dollars every once in awhile I could spend a large bunch of the summer at the seashore."

"Dear John, would you tell a loving but perfect stranger how to play the game without having to wear a mask?"

"Dear John, I played a couple of games recently with a wide-faced young man who knew very little and threw the parlor furniture at me because I trumped his ace. I fancy I must have done wrong. The fifth time I trumped his ace the young man arose, put on his gum shoes, and skeddaddled out of the house. Is it not considered a breach of etiquette to put on gum shoes in the presence of a lady?"

"If you please, dear John, tell me how to play bridge whist."

"Yourse fondly,"

"GLADYS JONES."

"P. S.—The furniture which he threw was not his property to dispose of."

"G. J."

When my wife got a flash of this letter she made a kick to the effect that it was some kind of a cypher, possibly the beginning of a secret correspondence.

It was up to me to hand Gladys the frosty get-back, so this is what I said:

"Respected Madam: I'm a slob on that bridge whist thing, plain poker being the only game with cards that ever coaxes my dough from the stocking, but I'll do the advice gas if it chokes me."

"Bridge whist is played with cards, just like pinochle, with the exception of the beer."

"Not enough cards is a mislead; too many cards is a mistake; and cards up the sleeve is a sin on the front piazza if they catch you at it."

"You shouldn't get up and dance the snake-dance every time you take a trick. It looks more genteel and picturesque to do the two-step."

"When your opponent has not followed suit it is not wise to pick out a loud tone of voice and tell him about it. Reach under the table and kick him on the shins. If it hurts him he is a cheat."

"If it doesn't hurt him always remember that you are a lady."

"Don't forget what is trumped more than 18 times during one hand. The limit used to be 26 times, but since the insurance people have been playing high authorities have put the limit down to 18."

"It isn't wise to have a conviction at every time you lose a trick. Nothing looks so bad as a conviction. At whom doesn't match the complexion, and generally it delays the game."

"When the game is close don't get excited and climb up on the table. It shows a want of refinement, especially if you are not a quick climber."

"Never whistle while waiting for some one to play. Whistling is not in good taste. Go over and bite out a couple of tunes on the piano."

"There. Gladys, if you follow these rules I think you can play the game of bridge whist without putting a bruise on the Monroe doctrine."

"P. S.—When you pay for money always bite the coin to see if it means as much as it looks."

"The next day, in order to square myself with my wife for getting a letter I hadn't any use for, I went to one of those New York department stores to get a birthday present."

"Say! did you ever get tangled up in one of those department store mobs and have a crowd of perfect ladies use you for a door mat?"

"I got none!"

"They certainly taught me the Rooseveltian glide, all right!"

"At the door of the department store a nice young man with a pink necktie and a quick forehead bowed to me."

"What do you wish?" he asked.

"Well," I said, "I'd come here to get a birthday present for my wife. I would like something which would afford her great pleasure when I give it to her, which I could use afterwards as a pen-wiper or a fishing-rod."

"Second floor," to the right; take the elevator," said the man in the hat.

"Did you ever try to take an elevator in a department store and find that 2,943 other American citizens and citizenettes were also trying to take the same elevator?"

"How sweet it is to mingle in the arms of utter strangers and to feel the gentle pressure of a foot we never hope to meet again!"

I was standing by one of the counters on the second floor when a shrill voice shrieked up over a low babel of dry goods and groceries: "Are you a huyer or a hander?"

"I am looking for a birthday present for my wife," I answered. "I want to get something that will look swell on the parlor table and may be used later on as a tobacco jar or a trouser stretcher."

"Fourth floor," to the left; take the elevator," said the lady's voice.

With bowed head I walked away. I began to feel sorry for my wife.

Nobody seemed to be very much interested whether she got a birthday present or not.

On the fourth floor I stopped at a counter where a lot of eager dames were pawing over some chinchilla ribbon and chiffon crepe de chine.

It reminded me of the way our dog digs up the vegetables in the garden.

I enjoyed the excitement of the game for about ten minutes and then I said to the clerk behind the counter who was refereeing the match: "Can you tell me where I can buy a sterling silver birthday present for my wife which I could use afterwards as a night key or a bath sponge?"

"Fifth floor," to the rear; take the elevator!" said the clerk.

On the fifth floor I went over to a table where a young lady was selling "The Life and Libraries of Andrew Carnegie" at four dollars a month and 50 cents a week, and in three years it is yours if you don't lose the receipt.

She gave me a glad smile and I felt a thrill of encouragement.

"Excuse me," I said, "but I am looking for a birthday present for my wife which will make all the neighbors jealous, and which I can use afterwards as an ash-receiver or a pocket flask."

The young lady cut out the glisties and pointed to the northwest.

I went over there.

To my surprise I found another counter.

A pale young woman was behind it.

I was just about to ask her the fatal question when a young man wearing a ragline expression on his face rushed up and said to the young lady behind the counter: "I am looking for a suitable present for a young lady friend of mine with golden brown hair. Could you please suggest something?"

The saleslady showed her teeth and answered him in a low grumbling voice, and the man went.

Then came an old lady who said: "I bought some organdie dress goods yesterday, a shirt-waist last Tuesday and I would like to exchange them for a music box for my daughter's little boy, Freddie. If you please!"

The saleslady again showed her teeth and the old lady ducked for cover.

After about 50 people had rushed up to the saleslady and then rushed away again, I went over and spoke to her.

"I am looking," I said, "for a birthday present for my wife. I want to get something that will give her a great amount of pleasure and which I can use later on as a pipe cleaner or a pair of suspenders."

"The saleslady faintly, so I moved over. At another counter another young lady said to me: "Have you been waited on?"

"No," I replied. "I have been stepped on, sat on and walked on, but I have not yet been waited on."

"What do you wish?" inquired the young woman.

"I am looking for a birthday present for my wife," I said. "I want to buy her something that will bring great joy to her heart and which I might use afterwards as a pair of slippers or a shaving mug."

The young lady caught me with her dreamy eyes and held me up against the wall.

"You," she screamed; "you complete a total of 23,493 people who have been in this department store today without knowing what they are doing here, and I need to be a human encyclopedia for the sake of eight dollars a week. On your way for yours!"

I began to apologize, but she reached down under the counter and pulled out a club.

"This," she said, with a wild look in her side lamps; "this is the happy summer!"

I began to apologize, but she reached down under the counter and pulled out a club.

"This," she said, with a wild look in her side lamps; "this is the happy summer!"

"You," she screamed; "you complete a total of 23,493 people who have been in this department store today without knowing what they are doing here, and I need to be a human encyclopedia for the sake of eight dollars a week. On your way for yours!"

For Kentucky—Thursday fair

The President's order for the adoption of phonetic spelling is being almost universally ridiculed.

Russellville went "wet" in an exciting prohibition election Saturday by a majority of 67 votes.

Valparaiso had another severe earthquake shock Monday, but no harm was done.

Bryan is to be asked to defer his visit to Louisville from Sept. 8 to 17, to make it fall in fair week.

Mayor Morris, of Nashville, has signed an ordinance requiring saloons to close at midnight.

Gus Thomas, of Mayfield, will run for Appellate Judge against Judge Nenn.

The Louisville Post says Cleveland is a greater man than Bryan, but Editor Knott is hardly an impartial judge in the matter.

The Courier-Journal's European party have returned home. They stopped over Tuesday at Niagara Falls.

Another aeronaut, named Chas. K. Hamilton, has made a successful shipment of six miles, at Des Moines. His ship was under perfect control.

The new railroad rate bill went into full force and effect on the 18th and is now ready to start on its journey through the various courts of the land.

Alfred Schaufelner, a negro, was hanged by a mob at Calhoun, La., for attempting to force his way into the sleeping apartment of a white girl. He confessed.

The school board at Richmond, Ind., who issued a rule prohibiting kissing by pupils, has modified the order and will allow "kissing in moderation." It is yet to be determined how many kisses a day would be considered about enough.

The saloon dealers of Louisville will open their doors next Sunday for the sale of soft drinks and cigars. They claim the same rights as druggists. Thus ends the first chapter of the "Story of the Lid."

President Roosevelt has undertaken a tremendous task in adopting the phonetic spelling. The London papers refused to take it seriously. The Standard bluntly declares the President over-ates his powers, adding that it declines to believe that scholarly and cultivated Americans will sacrifice history and meaning of the language by adopting "Carnegie Jargon." Other newspapers deal with the matter in a humorous vein.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Get Rid of Scrofula

Dancho's, eruptions, inflammation, soreness of the eyelids and ears, discharges of the bones, rickets, dyspepsia, catarrh, wasting, are only some of the troubles it causes. It is a very active evil, making havoc of the whole system.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Eradicates it, cures all its manifestations, and builds up the whole system. Cannot be substituted.

REIGN OF NEGRO LUST.

This time it is Wayne county, Ky., that is stirred with racial excitement over the attempt of a negro named Perry Copenhaver to assault a white girl, Miss Fairchild, 14 years old, near Monticello. The negro is under arrest and has been taken to Somerset to escape a mob bent on applying to him the unwritten law. This makes five of these outrages in Kentucky in as many weeks and in other Southern States the situation is still worse. Only two days ago a 5-year-old child was assaulted by a negro at Bertrand, Mo. In hardly a Southern state from Missouri to South Carolina has there been freedom from these horrid crimes during the present year and the number in the aggregate is larger than for years. There seems to be an epidemic of lustful violence, endangering the safety of the women of the South wherever negroes are found. A great negro convention is now in session in Atlanta, presided over by the ablest of all negroes, and these plain words are addressed to it in an editorial in the Atlanta Georgian, edited by John Temple Graves: "When Booker Washington with his National Afro-American Business League meets in Atlanta on Wednesday, he and the negroes who come with him to participate in this convention, are entitled to the considerate treatment of the people of Atlanta. They come here on the invitation of the mayor, the city council and the Chamber of Commerce, and whatever the general feeling which may exist in Atlanta at this time, these negroes of the better class gathered in peaceful and deliberative assembly should not be treated with anything less than sympathy or consideration. Having said this much, let us say that it would be better for the improvement for this body of men to spend any of their time while they are here in either making orations or passing resolutions in condemnation of lynching as they have done at previous sessions. If the Afro-American Business League would commend itself to the sympathy and respect of the people of the South it should utilize this opportunity to pass resolutions of the strongest and most emphatic nature condemning in blistering terms the criminals of their race, calling upon the teachers, the preachers and the fathers of the race to denounce the bulk of their time and their space to preaching hell and damnation to these criminals and advising their race as individuals and as organized bodies to co-operate heartily in helping the white man to hunt down and to bring to justice the criminals of the negro race and to condemn as participants in the crime any negroes who shelter or help or expedite the escape of the rapist in any part of the South. This is the first great racial convention that has assembled here since the race issue became so acute in the South. And, if Booker Washington wishes to vindicate his reputation he has attained for leadership and good sense, he will not miss this opportunity to speak in thunder tones along these lines and to rule the deliberations of this convention to this general end."

These words are rendered necessary by the failure of the negroes everywhere to condemn the crimes of their race. All the recent reign of lust the aid rendered by the negro hack driver, Kelsy, at Mayfield, is the one exception where a negro has rendered assistance in hunting down these human mad dogs. Kelsy, ignorant workman as he is, is a greater friend to his race than the so-called leader who prates loudly about "justice" to the rapist, who forfeits his life the moment he attacks the virtue of a wife or a daughter. The way to stop lynching is to stop criminal assaults.

The Real Estate Trust Co., of Philadelphia, failed Tuesday for $7,000,000. The man responsible was Frank K. Hipple, who died suddenly last Friday. Hipple was president of the company and also treasurer of the General Association of the Presbyterian church, which had $963,596 in his hands.

It is a dull day in Russia when some official is not assassinated. Gen. VonLiarski was shot to death while driving in the street, in Warsaw, Monday. The assassin, a young man, escaped.

Rev. Daniel B. Leach, of B. Gap, Ill., now 80 years old, has arranged to pray at his own funeral. He is known for a graphophone his favorite benediction, which he is wont to pray in stentorian tones that can be heard two blocks away, and has requested that it be rendered at his funeral.

It has turned out that a white woman named Curtis, who was sent to San Francisco in April to aid in the relief work of the War Department, is the wife of a negro doctor in Washington. She sought and obtained social recognition from those who were ignorant of the fact.

The largest gathering of newspaper men ever known is attending the 16th annual convention of the International League of Press Clubs at Denver. There are 500 delegates present. A prize of $1,000 in gold will be given the delegate who writes the best article descriptive of Colorado.

The constitutional amendment requiring a tax receipt to be shown cannot be voted on until 1907. Section 256 of the constitution requires all amendments proposed to be voted on only at the times representatives are elected.

The Cuban insurrection is making but little headway. In a fight near Cienfuegos 17 insurgents were killed by rural guards. President Palma has offered to pardon all rebels who lay down their arms and commit no further hostile acts.

At Bertrand, Mo., a little 5-year-old girl was assaulted by a white farm hand employed by the child's father, named Chas. Goforth. A lynching was being arranged for at last accounts.

WORDS OF PRAISE

FOR THE RETIRING PASTOR OF THE BAPTIST CHURCH, BY DR. W. O. CARVER.

The following article, commendatory of Dr. C. H. Nash, is from the pen of Dr. W. O. Carver, of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville:

AN APPRECIATION.

After a remarkably successful pastorate of sixteen years, Dr. C. H. Nash has resigned the care of the Hopkinsville church. Soon after accepting the pastorate of the church he faced the problem of a new building, and difficulties were highly complicated and difficult. Under his leadership every difficulty was overcome and one of the most beautiful and useful buildings in the State was dedicated.

Dr. Nash is a great missionary advocate and has developed his church until it is one of the largest and most reliable of all in mission contributions. It gives intelligently, systematically, progressively, prayerfully. It was because of the growth of the church in missions that Dr. Nash was several years ago appointed vice-president of the Foreign Mission Board, in which position he has continued till now.

BENNETT-HUNTER.

Former Hopkinsville Boy Returns to Claim a Wife.

By an oversight we failed to make notice in Tuesday's Kentuckian of the marriage in Clarksville last Friday of Miss Mabel Hunter, of this city, to Mr. John Bennett, of Louisville. The young couple are both well known here. Miss Hunter has held an important position at the Western asylum for several years and is a young woman greatly admired by all for her sweet womanly traits of character. The groom formerly lived in this city and held a position in the Kentuckian office. He is a young man of sterling worth and fine business qualifications. He now has a lucrative position with the large printing establishment of John P. Morton & Co. at Louisville. The young couple had been sweethearts for some time and Mr. Bennett had been paying frequent visits "to the city" since his departure a year ago. Last Thursday night he came down and early Friday morning the young couple left for Clarksville, accompanied by Mr. Jarred Boyd and Miss Mary Morris. They drove through in a hack and Mr. Bennett and Miss Hunter were married at the court house by Esq. Smith soon after their arrival there. Returning to this city, the young couple remained over until Sunday morning with the bride's sister, Mrs. Hayes, near the asylum. At 11 o'clock they left for Louisville, where they are now at home at 2410 Amber street, Parkland.

The Kentuckian extends hearty congratulations to the happy young couple and wishes for John and his pretty bride a long and happy wedded life.

SEVEN YOUNG WOMEN

Wed in Kansas Town in Six Months On a Wager.

Winfield, Kansas, Aug. 28.—Seven young women clerks employed by J. D. Robson, a country merchant at August, have married in the last six months, the last being married on a wager made some time ago that they would find husbands within six months. The time expired today.

The last year was the best in the history of the church, showing an increase in gifts to all missions, and a large increase to State Missions. Indeed it is significant that the last year of his pastorate was marked by the largest congregations, largest increase, largest gifts and best Sunday school in the history of the church.

As a minister, Dr. Nash is conscientious, large-minded, devoted. He works systematically and persistently, putting into his plans thought, prayer and work. He has been peculiarly a pastor of men and has seen some gratifying examples of many growth in his ministry.

As a preacher he is easily one of the best among us. I have never heard a better expository preacher, or for thinking people expository preaching is the highest kind. At the same time he knows how to preach popular topical discourses. Dr. Brodus never had a greater admirer and few students were better learned from him how to interpret the Scriptures and expound them.

Personally our brother is pure and strong, brave and modest, spiritual and aggressive.

It would be a serious loss to the State if he should go elsewhere.

For years he has been my friend, and all the years have developed my admiration for him. I came to know him first when I was a young country pastor near Hannibal, Mo. He was the young man's friend. His hospitable home was my home whenever I chose to enter it, and it was my delight to go often.

If I could say the choicest word of praise for Mrs. Nash I should have gone far to tell how God has gone about making a strong minister, for her quiet grace, gentle wisdom, loyal love, affectionate care have crowned all the years and filled every day.

May God lead them to a good place and that place will thereby be richly blessed.

The Old Reliable Jewelry House of Hopkinsville is, after all, the best place to get anything in the Jewelry line. There's a record behind us, a record of over thirty years; a clean record of satisfied customers, a record of honest dealing, for honest quality, honest prices. It's a record any Jeweler might feel proud of. And when we sell an article we have in mind that we have a record to maintain, and no slipshod methods, no careless workmanship, no lack of quality, is ever allowed to mar the record of the past. But to improve, if possible, this record, is ever our aim, and goods are sold for as low a price as it is possible to sell reliable goods.

It will pay you in the end to deal with the Old Reliable Jeweler.

Takes Hold at Lexington.

Dr. Florence Meder Assumes New Duties Saturday—Departure Much Regretted.

Recent notice was made of the transfer of Dr. Florence Meder, of the Western Asylum, to the Eastern Asylum at Lexington, which change will become effective Saturday, September 1. She will return by that time from a visit to Atlantic City. Miss Meder in the eight years since she graduated from a medical college in 1898, has risen rapidly in her chosen profession: She has been practicing two years when appointed third assistant physician of the Western Asylum by Gov. Beckham in 1900. She was so young at that time that some misgivings were felt that a mistake had been made, but she demonstrated by the discharge of her duties that she was not only a young woman of superior intelligence, but as a physician was amply able to hold her own with either sex. She soon familiarized herself with her duties and as time passed endeared herself to every one of the 450 female patients on her wards. A graduate of the Homoeopathic school she took up the study of the Allopathic school and is now thoroughly posted in the science and practice of both schools.

In the six years that Miss Meder

Push and Publicity. Push has made American men what they are to-day. It is the great American spirit condensed into a moneyable. Hand in hand with push goes publicity as a motive power toward success. The two are so close that it is difficult to know them apart. The man of push is a champion of publicity. If he has a good thing he wishes the public to know about it. If he has goods to sell there must be push and publicity if he would convert those goods into income. What is the use of having the goods to sell if no one knows of them? How are the buyers to be found? Push and publicity will provide the articles to be sold and the persons to buy them. Push and publicity are the antidotes of stagnation and starvation.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Old Yeeemico Church. The two hundredth anniversary of the old Yeeemico church in Virginia has just been celebrated. The mother of George Washington attended this church when she was a girl. So did Richard and Henry Lee, who were the ancestors of the great Lees of Virginia. John Bushrod was a member of the vestry and Daniel McCarthy, one speaker of the house of burgesses, is buried there.

Considering its age, the church is in very good condition. A movement has been started by Rev. Mr. Tyler, archdeacon of Virginia, for the raising of an endowment fund to be used toward its preservation.

Lawson Flack, after an illness of several weeks of fever, is able to be out again.

LOCAL LEAFLETS.

Next Monday is county court day. T. L. Metcalfe is making a large addition to his greenhouses.

The parish house of the Episcopal church will soon be ready for the roof.

The continued rains of this month have caused grass to grow rapidly and another cleaning up will have to be made before cold weather.

A new front is being put in at Clark's grocery. There will be a door in the center with large show windows on each side.

There are about half a dozen divorce suits docketed for the next term of circuit court against nearly thirty for the last term.

The long blast of the whistle of the Forbes Mfg. Co. is no longer heard. Pity it is that others cannot take a hint and cut out the whistle nuisance.

The whistle at the rock quarry blows louder and longer than usual about half-past five Tuesday. From what we have heard the matter will be brought before the next grand jury. The people are being "woken up" in more than one sense.

Mr. Lucian H. Davis' new pictorial fall catalogue is about ready for distribution. It is the best advertisement ever gotten out in the city and will not only prove profitable to Mr. Davis but will do the whole city good. The Commercial Club should follow Mr. Davis' example and get out some attractive advertising matter.

The Bowling Green Business University.

The annual session of the Bowling Green Business University will open Tuesday morning, Sept. 4th. The following branches are taught: Bookkeeping, Shorthand, Typewriting, Banking, Telegraphy, Business Arithmetic, Commercial Law, Business Correspondence, and Spelling. FOR SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.

E. A. Gullion, of New Castle, Henry County, Announces His Candidacy.

Facts Upon Which He Relies For Support; Former Superintendent and Teacher; Ex-President of Kentucky Educational Association—What Prominent School Men Say.

NEW CASTLE, KY., Aug. 18, 1906. To Democratic Voters of Kentucky: I am a candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction in Kentucky, and ask you to nominate me for that most honorable position at the Democratic primary to be held November 6.

It is proper that I should state some facts about myself in order that Democrats may determine if I am worthy and competent.

THE REFORMATION OF A COUNTY. The following statement is just received from Carrollton, Ky.:

"To the Democratic Voters of Ken"tucky, Having learned that E. A.
"Gullion, a former citizen of our "Carroll county, is a candidate for "the very important office of Super"intendent of Public Instruction, we "desire to commend him to your
"favorable consideration."

"During a term of sixteen years
"Mr. Gullion was Superintendent of "Common Schools for Carroll county.
"and it is with pride that we say he "administered the office with signal "ability. He raised the standard of "scholarship among teachers and
"created a public enthusiasm in the "cause of education that led to an "immense improvement of the "schools. Indeed, the schools of "Carroll county were placed on such "a high plane that we pointed to "them with pride, knowing them to "be unsurpassed by any other "schools. There was a correspond"ing improvement during his in-
"tertenancy in houses, furnishings,
"and apparatus. In short, there
"was substantial improvement in all "educational matters—a revival, a
"reformation!"

"Mr. Gullion has had liberal ex"perience in both teaching and su"perintending, and is abreast of the "times in methods and agencies.
"His knowledge of the common "school system, as well as of the "rights and duties of officers, patrons
"and pupils, is not merely theoretic-
"cal, but thoroughly practical.
"Withal, he has the power to arouse "enthusiasm, being an enthusiast
"himself. In the matter of common "school education."
"We were county officers during all
"or part of the time he was Superin"tendent and are familiar with his
"work while in office."

(The above statement is signed by Judge J. A. Donaldson and the other county officials who were then in office; also by the present officers and bankers. Every citizen of that county would sign it if requested.)

I have taught in schools ranging from the common school in the back woods to the lower classes in one of our leading colleges.

IN THE K. E. A. AND BEFORE LEGISLATURE

For more than twenty years I have been attending the State Teachers' Association and in 1896 was president of that honorable body. The published proceedings and addresses show that I was active in all movements for the betterment of public schools, originating some of them. This is particularly true as to the agitation for normal schools, longer school terms, better schoolhouses, modern equipment and compulsory attendance. As chairman of a Legislative Committee appointed by the Kentucky Educational Association, I pressed upon the General Assembly divers amendments looking to those ends and procured their passage. I am the author of the plan by which three and four months' schools were abolished, and wrote the amendment that effectuated the plan. The selfsame committee brought about most of the beneficial changes that have been made in the school law in the past fifteen years, the result being a gradual development of the common school system.

THE END NOT YET.

If nominated I shall be elected, in which event I shall devote whatever time and talent I have to the great cause in which are centered the dearest interests of the children and the Commonwealth. We shall make progress along all the lines indicated, for a brighter era has evidently dawned. It shall be my highest and most cherished ambition to foster and develop the State's normal schools until they shall be adequate for all and good enough for the best—unsurpassed by those of any other State. To better correlate common schools with high schools and high schools with colleges, so as to unify our entire educational system, will also be a matter for my best thought and effort.

WHAT SOME ABLE SCHOOL MEN SAY.

Many prominent school men have written to me, some urging me to become a candidate, others endorsing my candidacy. From the mass I select a few expressions:

Sup't M. A. Cassidy, Lexington City Schools: "You are worthy and well qualified; you have been an enthusiastic public school man ever since you became a man; you would know how to meet the problems of elementary and secondary education as few other men could; and, above all, you would know how to get in touch with school officers and teachers. You may quote me anywhere as being for you first last and all the time."

Hon. Jas. H. Pugh, Superintendent of Public Instruction: "During your term of service as Superintendent of Carroll county you brought your schools to the highest degree of excellence."

Prof. C. A. Leonard, Sup't, Cinthiana schools: "I hope you will announce at once and make a thorough canvass of the State; I shall work for you."

Prof. W. H. Bartholomew, Principal Girls' High School, Louisville: "A friend of public instruction when the cause needed friends. Gullion merits the honor of the Superintendency."

Pres. Jan K. Patterson, State College, Lexington: "Without disparagement to any other public man who has labored for the development of the educational and material interests of the Commonwealth, I say without reserve that I know of no man who has done better work than yourself."

Prof. R. M. Shipps, Sup't Winchester schools: "I shall do my best for you wherever I go; although I do not know you personally, I know from your reputation that you are worthy and capable. I have no ax to grind."

Sup't E. W. Weaver, formerly of Bellevue and Paris schools, now of Brooklyn, N. Y.: "You are the best, most enthusiastic and most practical school superintendent I have known. A strong point in your favor is that you have come from the ground up."

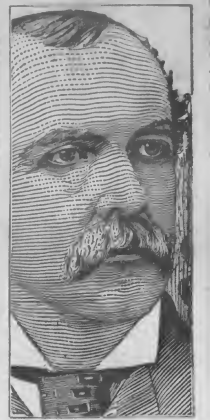

Prof. J. T. Gaines, Principal, &c., Louisville: "You are a member of the Old Guard. Your service as a worker for better education of the masses has been unflinching and continuous. You have in my opinion the exact record and experience that best fit the man who ought to be chosen at this time."

Prof. R. H. Carothers, formerly principal of Male High School, Louisville: "I have long considered you one of the hardest workers and most efficient advocates of good schools. We are now, after a vigorous campaign of more than 20 years, realizing the fruits of these efforts in the establishment of the State Normal schools."

The statements herein are not prompted by a vainglorious spirit, but are intended to show, and do show, I submit, that my experience has been such as to give me peculiar fitness for the most honorable office the people can bestow, the State Superintendency. The best commanders usually come up from the trenches. Respectfully,

E. A. GULLION.

UNITED STATES SENATOR FROM SOUTH CAROLINA PRAISES PERUNA.

Ex-Senator M. C. Butler.

Dyspepsia Is Often Caused By Catarrh of the Stomach—Peruna Relieves Catarrh of the Stomach and Is Therefore a Remedy For Dyspepsia.

Hon. M. C. Butler, Ex-U. S. Senator from South Carolina for two terms, in a letter from Washington, D. C., writes to the Peruna Medicine Co., as follows:

"I can recommend Peruna for dyspepsia and stomach trouble. I have been using your medicine for a short period and I feel very much relieved. It is indeed a wonderful medicine, besides a good tonic."

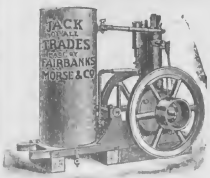

CATARRH of the stomach is the correct name for most cases of dyspepsia. In order to cure catarrh of the stomach the catarrh must be eradicated. Only an internal catarrh remedy, such as Peruna, is available. Peruna exactly meets the indications.

LOW RATES FOR THE STATE FAIR

Railroads Fix One Fare For the Round Trip.

MANY VARIED ATTRACTIONS

Provided For State Fair Week, Sept. 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22.

TROTTERS AND RUNNERS WILL RACE EACH DAY

Surpassing Exhibition of Horseflesh, Cattle, Sheep and Swine—Warrior Department a Joy to Housewives. Twenty-five Thousand Dollars in Premiums and Purse.

Railroad rates for the State Fair have been fixed at one fare plus 25 cents for the round trip from all points in Kentucky and in Southern Indiana. With nine railroads running into the city of Louisville, where the Fair will be held during the week of September 17-22, one hundred passenger trains daily will carry thousands to the metropolis of Kentucky. In addition many special trains will be run in order to accommodate those who wish to visit the Fair for a single day only. There is no part of the state of Kentucky from which Louisville can not be reached in a reasonable time. From the western part of the state the Henderson and Illinois Central railroads with furnish ample accommodations. In the southern part the L. & N. will bring thousands, while from the central and eastern sections the C. & O., Southern and L. & N. will bring the crowds.

A CLYDESDALE

Once in Louisville, ample amusement will be provided to keep every visitor well entertained and amused during his stay, whether it be for a day or during the entire week. Of course the Fair itself will be the center of interest, and there so many fine attractions have been arranged for that the whole time can be spent enjoyably and profitably without seeking other recreation. Each of the men having the different departments in hand is thoroughly qualified by long years of training and experience to arrange the exhibits in his charge in the most attractive and approved manner.

Many Things to Please.

The Fair proper, that is, the exhibits of horses, cattle and other live stock, the products of farm and field, the garden and flower beds, mechanical department and that devoted to woman's handiwork, will be both interesting and of great educational value. This is not even half of the pleasure that has been provided for those who attend the State Fair. Those who love a contest, and how many Kentuckians are there who do not, between the clean-limbed and high-spirited trotting horses and thorough breeds, will find four races on the program each day. There will be either a trotting or pacing race, heat three heats in five and three running races. For over a month the track has been in course of preparation for the trotting races. Thousands of gallons of water have been poured on it daily, and after each wetting it has been rolled and packed so that the trotters will find firm and resilient surface under their shoes rather than the deep and sandy soil, which is better suited to thoroughbreds. The hard surface will not be of disadvantage to the owners, inasmuch as the races immediately before the Fair will be at Douglas Park, a track that was built for trotting purposes, and which is considerably harder than the average running track. Among the features of the program is one for trotters of the 2-10 class and a free-for-all for pacers, which will be decided on Friday. In the thoroughbred division there will be a gentlemen's cup race and two steeple chases, while every day there will be at least one race of a mile or more. As there will be no other racing in the west during the Fair, the best horses in training and the highest class jockeys in the west will take part in the racing at the State Fair. Purse for the trotting races will be $500 each, a considerably larger amount than is ordinarily offered at fairs.

Varied Attractions.
Visitors in the city during the week can enjoy the many varied attractions at night. They can go to the Fair and enjoy a concert by one of the most famous musical organizations in the United States. They can go over the grounds and take in the carnival shows or can sit in the Palm Garden and enjoy the music while they chat over pleasures of the day with their friends and renew their acquaintance with acquaintances from races of the state. The social feature of the Fair will undoubtedly prove one of its most attractive points, and as the years go on the State Fair will become more and more a meeting ground for Kentuckians from all sections of the commonwealth, where they can see what the other parts of the state are doing and exchange ideas of mutual benefit. The State Fair is the place to meet your friends and enjoy a few days' outing. It comes at a season of the year when the farmer and stock raiser can best afford to leave the house for a few days, and thousands will take advantage of the low rates in order to be there.

When the exhibits of horseflesh, cattle and swine in the morning and the races in the afternoon have been sufficient for the day at the Fair, the visitors can find other forms of recreation and amusement in the five theaters in Louisville or at any one of the several parks about the city. At Macaulay's theater they can find high-class drama; at the Masonic, enjoy a musical comedy; at the Avenue, a thrilling melodrama, or at the Hopkins, refined vaudeville.

Glasses Well Filled.

Practically every class for which prize money has been offered has been well filled, and the leading stock raisers of the state will be there to show their horses, their cattle, their sheep and their hogs. The exhibits of horseflesh will undoubtedly surpass anything ever before seen at the State Fair in Kentucky, and will excel those of the well-established State

A FOUR-YEAR-OLD.

Fairs of Ohio, Indiana and Illinois. The fact that only one week intervenes between the Fair and the Louisville Horse Show has added many entries in the horse division. The classes for the high steppers, roadsters and both three- and five-year-old saddle horses have many entries that will be shown at the Louisville Horse Show. The light harness and plantation saddle classes, which are exhibited only at fairs in Kentucky, have likewise been well filled.

In many of the saddle rings as many as twenty entries have been received. This is especially true in the five-gated saddlers, and many other entries are expected before ribbons are tied. In the beef cattle division entries will come from Missouri, Ohio and Indiana to compete with Kentucky stock raisers, and it is predicted that the Shorthorn and other beef cattle classes will surprise even those who have been regular attendants at fairs. The Overton Hall Farm, near

FAIRZ TARNWORTH BOV.

Nashville, Tenn., will send its entire herd of Jerseys, considered the greatest that has ever been furnished in this country. It will include Brookhill Fox, the champion Jersey bull of England.

The judges selected for all the classes have been chosen with the greatest care. They are men not only qualified to pass upon merits of the entries, but also men who are absolutely unbiased and whose judgment would be readily accepted by both winners and losers alike.

Southwest

The Land of BIG CROPS and PROSPERITY.

Are you making as much off your farm as you ought? No doubt you are making all you CAN. The trouble is the land costs too much. It takes too much money to buy a big farm, and so you are trying to make a living on a small farm, or perhaps you are renting one and paying a good share of what you raise, in rent. Wouldn't it be better to go where the price of good land is so little that you can own a big farm—where every acre of the ground is working for you and all you raise is paying you good profits?

There are thousands of acres of fertile land in the Southwest along the line of the Cotton Belt Route that can be bought for from $3 to $10 an acre. This land is increasing in value each year.

See the Southwest at Small Cost.

A trip to the Southwest will convince you that your best interests lay in settling there. The trip can be made at very little expense. On the first and third Tuesday of each month you can purchase a round trip ticket to any point in the Southwest on or via the Cotton Belt Route at very low rates. Stop over will be allowed for you to examine any locality you are interested in. Write at once for free copies of books describing this wonderful country and for full information about cost of tickets, etc.

"WIRELESS" TEN YEARS OLD

About That Time Since Valuable Invention Was First Given to the World.

Wireless telegraphy is now ten years old. On June 2, 1896, there was filed in the British patent office a provisional specification "for improvements in transmitting electrical impulses and signals and in apparatus therefor," by one Guglielmo Marconi.

At the time this patent was applied for, says the Scientific American, the art of transmitting messages without wires was wholly unknown, in so far as its practice and utilization were concerned.

Marconi was perhaps the most persistent experimenter in the bridging of greater distances, while very early in the development of the new telegraphy Lodge turned his attention to the production of a selective system by means of electrical resonance.

The former succeeded so well in his task that from three miles in 1897 he was enabled to send and receive signals 3,000 miles in 1904, while the latter, although he failed to evolve a commercially selective apparatus, led the way for the timing of the sending and receiving circuits individually, and synchronizing them collectively.

Another important feature of recent date is the utilization of auto-detectors in connection with telephone receivers as receivers for the translation of incoming electric waves into the alphabetic code of dots and dashes.

De Forest was probably the first in the commercial field to use the auto-detector and telephone receiver, while Fessenden has conferred a lasting benefit upon science and humanity by his ingenious detector, the liquid barometer, an instrument that in its sensibility, its ruggedness and its simplicity is second only to the telephone receiver of Bell.

With these improvements, chiefly made within the past five years, wireless telegraphy is all that the most exacting critic could hope for, if we except selectivity, and in this especial branch of the work there is yet unlimited opportunity for the wireless inventor to exercise his ingenuity.

DESCENDANT OF POLISH JEW

Great-Grandfather of Queen of Spain a Man of Very Humble Position.

The blood of prince and of peasant, so it is said, mingles every 100 years. A striking instance is the case of Princess Ena, now the wife of Alfonso of Spain.

Here is the story as given in Le Monde Moderne: "First cousin to the emperor of Russia, to the German emperor and to the heir to the throne of Great Britain, Princess Ena of Battenberg is almost as nearly related to a far humbler family circle.

"Toward the beginning of last century a Polish Jew, Hanke, by name, entered the service of the grand duke of Hesse-Darmstadt, and occupied a very subordinate position at the little court. His daughter, Julia Theresia, born in 1825, was, at the age of 26, married morganatically by Prince Alexander of Hesse, two years her junior.

"Renouncing the faith of her fathers, she was baptized into the Protestant church, and by the reigning grand duke was accorded the title first of countess of Battenberg and subsequently of princess.

"Prince Henry, the third child of this union, became the husband of Princess Beatrice and, of course, father of Princess Ena, King Alfonso's bride. So little was he considered as belonging to the inner circle of European royalty that when Queen Victoria conferred upon him the rank of royal highness protests arose on all sides.

"Formal notifications were made by the courts of Berlin, Vienna and St. Petersburg to the effect that Queen Victoria's son in law, issue of a morganatic union, could not be recognized as royal highness elsewhere than on British territory. Twenty years later the daughter of the man on whom this affront is put became queen of Spain and treats on a footing of perfect equality all the reigning monarchs of Europe."

The State College of Kentucky,

LEXINGTON, KY.

The Agricultural and Mechanical (State College) of Kentucky offers the following courses of study, viz: Agricultural, Horticultural, Chemical, Biological, Mathematical, Physical, Normal School, Classical, Mechanical Engineering, Electrical Engineering, Civil Engineering, and Mining Engineering, each of which extends over four years and leads to a degree. Post graduate studies are also provided, leading to a master's degree. Each course of study is organized under a separate faculty. The general faculty number nearly fifty professors and instructors.

County appointees receive free tuition, room rent in the dormitories, fuel and light, and if they remain ten months, traveling expenses. The laboratories and museums are large, well equipped, comprehensive and modern.

Graduates from the several courses of study readily find excellent positions and liberal remuneration. The demand is largely in excess at the ability of the College to supply. The matriculation for the last year was, including Summer school, 815.

Specialists with the necessary number of assistants have charge of each department of natural science. Summer schools are provided for pedagogy, engineering, instruction in science and in arts.

The State College of Kentucky, though bearing hitherto the title of "college," is the only institution in the Commonwealth doing, in any proper sense, university work.

The completion of the College home for young women provides facilities for good board and lodging. It is equipped with all modern conveniences, including bath rooms and room for physical culture. It is heated by steam and lighted by electricity.

An opportunity is thus afforded to young women of obtaining a thorough education in classics, modern language, literature, science, mathematics, logic, metaphysics, history, and political economy.

No other institution in the State offers advantages for education of women at all comparable to those offered by the State College of Kentucky.

The Normal Department will be on a better footing than ever heretofore. Last year's largely increased attendance, with the unprecedented growth of the Summer Normal School, both indicate that an era of prosperity surpassing that of all previous years has opened for the Normal Department of the State College.

Great Reduction In Prices of Wall Paper

Nobody is absolutely infallible.
We all make some mistakes. One of our mistakes of last season was buying too much wall paper.

We want to turn our surplus stock into cash for two reasons, viz: We need the cash and want to make room for the new fall stock. In order to do this,

We will for the next ten days, beginning Monday, July 16, sell everything in the WALL PAPER line at greatly reduced prices.
We mean business.

A Healing Gospel.

The Rev. J. C. Warren, pastor of Sharon Baptist church, Belair, Ga., says of Electric Bitters: "It's a Godsend to mankind. It cured me of lame back, stiff joints and complete physical collapse. I was so weak it took me half an hour to walk a mile. Two bottles of Electric Bitters have made me so strong I have just walked 3 miles in 50 minutes and feel like walking three more.
It's made a new man of me." Greatest remedy for weakness and all
